JOHN N. MAY'S WHOLESALE TRADE LIST

—OF—

New and Choice Roses, Carnations
and Chrysanthemums,

SUMMIT, - - NEW JERSEY.

Greeting

TO ALL MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS AND THE GENERAL FLORIST TRADE.

THE season is now at hand when the consideration of what will be wanted for next winter's supply in the cut flower line, I beg to hand you my Trade List, containing what, in my judgment, I consider the very cream of all the varieties of each class of plants I offer, and to assure you that no pains will be spared in the future as in the past to ensure your continued patronage. The stock I offer will be found equal to the very best that is possible to produce and at prices consistent with the times. In the new varieties I offer this season for the first time will be found some sterling acquisitions, particularly in Mrs. W. C. Whitney (New Rose), Helen Keller and Iago, new Carnations, and my set of new Chrysanthemums, all of which are of the highest merit.

Thanking you all most sincerely for your very liberal patronage of the past, and respectfully soliciting a continuance of the same, also your kind recommendations to your friends, I am,

Yours very truly,

JOHN N. MAY.

BUSINESS METHODS.

Please read the following, and by observing these suggestions customers will save themselves considerable trouble and greatly aid me in filling their orders correctly:

Shipping Goods. We try to ship every order (weather permitting) the same day it is received and in strict rotation as received, unless otherwise instructed.

Cases and Packing. No charge is made for these, except in unusual cases; every shipment is packed carefully and delivered to the forwarders at SUMMIT in good, sound condition, in tight cases, as long as the weather will permit, then in cases securely fastened down with slats over the top to prevent damage and to secure the lowest possible express charges.

Delays. To prevent these as far as possible please write all orders legibly and signed in full, with Post Office, County and State added, also naming the express or other means of transporting desired. A copy of all orders should be kept by the sender.

Errors. Where such occur patrons will confer a favor by advising me at once, and if it occurred through any fault of mine I will correct it at once, if possible; but no claims for such will be entertained unless notice be sent to me immediately on receipt of goods.

Damages in Transportation. I cannot guarantee against these, but take every precaution to guard against them.

Remittances. All orders from unknown correspondents must be accompanied with remittances for same, or satisfactory references to reliable persons. I make no exception to this rule. Money can be sent by Bank Draft, Post Office Money Orders, or Express Company's Money Orders. Where none of these are available enclose greenbacks in registered letters. C. O. D. orders not sent unless part of money is sent with the order as a guarantee of good faith.

Size and Number of Plants, which are all grown in standard pots of the respective sizes quoted—3 at dozen rates, 50 at 100 rates, 500 at 1,000 rates, but I cannot mail plants at these prices. We do not substitute anything unless so instructed by our patrons, and endeavor to keep everything true to name.

Invoices are sent with each shipment of goods. The prices quoted are for net cash within thirty days, unless otherwise agreed upon before booking the order.

Large Sized Plants, of which I prepare specially for later planting, and shall be pleased to quote prices, etc., at the same time.

 VISITORS are always welcome to inspect the goods I offer.

GRAND NEW ROSE OF 1894

(MRS. W. C. WHITNEY.)

New American seedling Rose (Hybrid Tea) undoubtedly by far the finest variety ever raised in America and one of the greatest acquisitions ever introduced. Color, beautiful shade of clear deep pink with a fragrance distinct from any other known variety—a combination of Lemon Verbena, Heliotrope and the old favorite rose “Centifolia.” The flowers are large, full and elongated, many of them can be cut with stems two feet long, with extra fine, handsome foliage. It is also an exceedingly free flowering variety, of strong vigorous growth, and every shoot producing a flower. It will produce one-third more flowers than “Bon Silene” from the same space. It won the “Mrs. Whitney Cup” at Madison Square Garden, New York, in 1892; a silver medal at the Philadelphia Show, spring of 1893; a silver medal at the New York Show, fall of 1893; first-class Certificate of Merit at Washington, D. C., and Springfield, Mass., fall of 1893, and was also awarded the World's Columbian Medal and Diploma at Chicago, where it was blooming all summer in the New York Florists' Club exhibit.

Good strong plants ready for distribution April 1st, 1894. Prices to the trade only—75 cts. each; $7.50 per doz.; $25.00 per 50; $40.00 per 100; $150.00 per 500; $250.00 per 1000.

New French Roses of 1893.

SELECTED FROM A LONG LIST TESTED.

BARONNE BERGE. Somewhat in the way of “Mme. Cusin” but much more delicate and beautiful coloring, being a soft lemon white at base of petals, beautifully tinted with soft rose pink on the outer edges. Plants very vigorous and free blooming. Good strong plants ready April 1st, 30 cts., each, $3.00 per doz., $20.00 per 100.

BEAUTY INCONSTANT. A charming thing, producing flowers very freely; intermediate in size between “Bon Silène” and “Mme. Hoste,” but of a most beautiful, bright, glowing cherry color, strong vigorous grower, with fine glossy foliage. Good strong plants ready April 1st. Price 30 cts. each, $3.00 per doz., $20.00 per 100.

MAMAN COCHET. An exceedingly large, handsome flower in the way of “Catherine Mermet,” but with a faint tinge of yellow at the base of the petals and a larger flower than that favorite variety. Good strong plants ready April 1st. Price, 30 cts. each, $3.00 per doz., $20.00 per 100.

AMERICAN BELLE. A pink sport from “American Beauty,” and entirely distinct from it both in color of flower and foliage; a very beautiful variety and will become a great favorite when better known. Price:

HYBRID REMONTANTS.

For Bedding Purposes.

I grow good stock for this purpose on their own roots, which, if planted early, would make fine plants, and when once established would give very little trouble after, except to prune and an occasional dressing of manure. As there are no suckers to rob the plants of their growth, such plants live and improve for many years.

Among the varieties are the following:

Anna de Diesbach.

Baroness Rothschild.

Caroline d'Arden. Soft delicate rose, extra fine.

Coquette des Blanches. White, one of the best.

Countess of Oxford. Bright carmine, very fine and free.

Dinsmore. A very valuable, large red rose, exceedingly free flowering.

Earl of Dufferin. Extra fine bright crimson. This is undoubtedly one of the finest roses introduced in many years.

General Jacqueminot.

Gloire de Margottin. Brightest color of any known rose.

Heinrich Schultheis.

John Hopper. Deep shaded rose, one of the best.

Mme. Gabriel Luizet. Bright satin pink; one of the very finest bedding roses grown.

Margaret Dickson. Pure white, extra large and fine form; the finest white rose yet introduced.

Mabel Morrison.

Magna Charta. Deep rose, very fine.

Mme. Plantier. White.

Mme. Montet. Very free, clear pink.

Merveille de Lyon. White, shaded with delicate pink.

Mrs. John Laing. Clear pink, very free, and altogether one of the finest bedding roses.

Paul Neyron. Very large deep rose.

Prince Camille de Rohan, or "Black Prince."

Queen of Queens. Rose, shaded with pink, large and full; very free blooming and an extra fine variety.

T. W. Girdlestone. Crimson, very large and sweet, extra.

Ulrich Brunner. Fine, bright, clear red, the best of its color, extra.

Prices, $10.00 to $13.00 per hundred, according to variety.

Many of the above can be supplied in extra strong two year old budded plants where desired.

BEDDING OR MONTHLY ROSES.

The following are selected, as further experience has proved them to be the best of a long list tested:

Agrippina. (Queen's Scarlet). Clear crimson, one of the very best.

Etoile de Lyon. Clear bright yellow, very free.
F. B. Hayes. Crimson.
La France. Extra good.

NATHAN SMITH & SONS' NOVELTIES FOR 1894.

LAREDO. A Japanese variety of great merit, with whirled and incurving strap petals of a deep pink, without a trace of magenta. Strictly a self colored flower coming into perfection November 20th to December 10th. Is like "Ada Spaulding," its mother parent, producing short jointed growth with abundance of foliage and a flower equally double. Seven inches in diameter.

IORA. A large, high built flower; petals tubular their entire length, which are whirled in their arrangement. Very artistic and the color being light pink is a desirable novelty to those requiring graceful flowers for artistic work. Mid-season, medium height, full double with good stem and foliage.

J. A. PETTIGREW. Late, seldom ready to cut before November 20th, and as its keeping qualities are unexcelled will be valuable for late cutting. Inner surface of petals similar in color to "Incandescent," or, as it is termed, crushed strawberry color with light buff reverse. The outer petals reflexed with centre ones incurved, showing both colors to advantage. Flower large, growth strong, of medium height. Certificate at Toronto, 1893.

MISS HATTIE BAILEY. A double reflexed Japanese, petals convexed and twisted, growth strong, of medium height, color dark bronzy red. Late—in perfection "Thanksgiving." Commercially the best dark bronze we know of.

ORIANA. A seedling from "Harry Balsley," consequently tall, past mid-season when seen at its best. Pink, outer petals reflexed, centre incurving. May be simply described as "Maud Dean" in color and form but larger, but in no case does it show a disc. Certificate at Toronto, 1893.

INGOMAR. We recommend this variety for exhibition purposes only. Too tall for commercial growing, but its size and fullness make it desirable for exhibition collections. Late; long tubular petals, color yellow with bronzy shading. Select early crown bud for best results. Certificated (as No. 25) at Springfield, 1892.

APONOGETON DISTACHYON (or Cape Pond Lily), often called "Winter Hawthorn," from its delicious fragrance and pure whiteness. Where white orchids are in demand this plant will fill a long felt want. With very little care it can be had in bloom every day from September to July. All that is required is a half barrel placing six inches of rich soil in the bottom, in which plant the bulb, placing in a light, airy part of the greenhouse. Fill up the tub with water and keep the same quite full at all times, and the plant will never be out of flower.

Good, strong flowering bulbs, $4.50, $6.00 and $9.00 per dozen, according to size and age.

MIGNONETTE SEED. My own selection, which is conceded to be the finest Mignonette in the market. Pkt., 25 cts.; oz., $3.00. Owing to the great demand for seed, I will not be able to supply any more until next July, as I am sold out, but orders booked now will be filled promptly then, and in strict rotation.

GALVANIZED WIRE STAKES for tying, made from No. 6, 8 or 10 wire in 3, 3½, 4, 4½ and 5 feet lengths. These are the very best stakes for the purpose, being always clean, durable, light and cheap. They make but very slight shade in the house, are always in position if stayed with fine wire on top, are more easily removed when required than any other and much easier placed in position again.

Prices, which vary according to lengths and number required, will be gladly furnished on application.
